DRAMA CLASSES

As a reminder, it is Young Footliters' policy that only those individuals who have completed a drama class within the past 12 months of the audition date, or are currently taking one, may participate in Young Footliters productions. We no longer allow actors to audition and then begin a class. We will be checking this requirement BEFORE actors are allowed to audition. Tali Ariav is once again offering a one-day drama camp on Sunday, Sept. 10. Taking this camp will allow your actor to audition for one of our fall shows. A registration form is included in this newsletter or can be downloaded from our website (www.youngfootliters.org). If you have any questions, please call Becky Dagle, 338-5999 or email bdagle@youngfootliters.org.

AUDITION PAPERWORK

We request that you accompany your young actor to auditions to fill out the paperwork and pay appropriate fees. It is very important for our Directors to know of any conflicts your actor may have when scheduling rehearsals. Our young people don't always remember everything! Young Footliters also has a policy that all fees must be paid by the first rehearsal of the current play. The actor will not receive a script until appropriate fees are paid. If the fees pose a financial hardship for your family, please speak with Brenda Christner.

MEMBERSHIP FEES ARE DUE

We are now collecting the yearly Membership Fee for the 2006-2007 season. These fees help pay the costs of operating a theatre: electricity and rent for the storage unit, insurance, mailings, maintaining the website, just to name a few. Fill out the Membership form in this newsletter, include your $30 payment, and mail to The Young Footliters, PO Box 1561, Iowa City, IA 52244. You may also bring the form and payment to auditions in September. Payment is due by Sept. 30, 2006 to remain on our mailing list.
